AMAZING GRACE!

ECD QUEEN JANEY LEE GRACE KNOWS EVERY GREEN TRICK GOING

"I scared myself when I realised just how many paper towels I was getting through! So if I'm just mopping up spills, I've started using fabric remnants instead. I'm guessing you have several old cotton T-shirts kicking around that aren't in good enough condition for the charity shop, so I'd suggest you re-purpose them as mop-up cloths. When you're done, pop them in the laundry or assign them to the compost!"
